USER GUIDE
TO THE
PORTFOLIO BUDGET STATEMENTS

USER GUIDE

The purpose of the 2019–20 Portfolio Budget Statements (PB Statements) is to inform Senators and Members of Parliament of the proposed allocation of resources to government outcomes by entities within the portfolio. Entities receive resources from the annual appropriations acts, special appropriations (including standing appropriations and special accounts) and revenue from other sources.

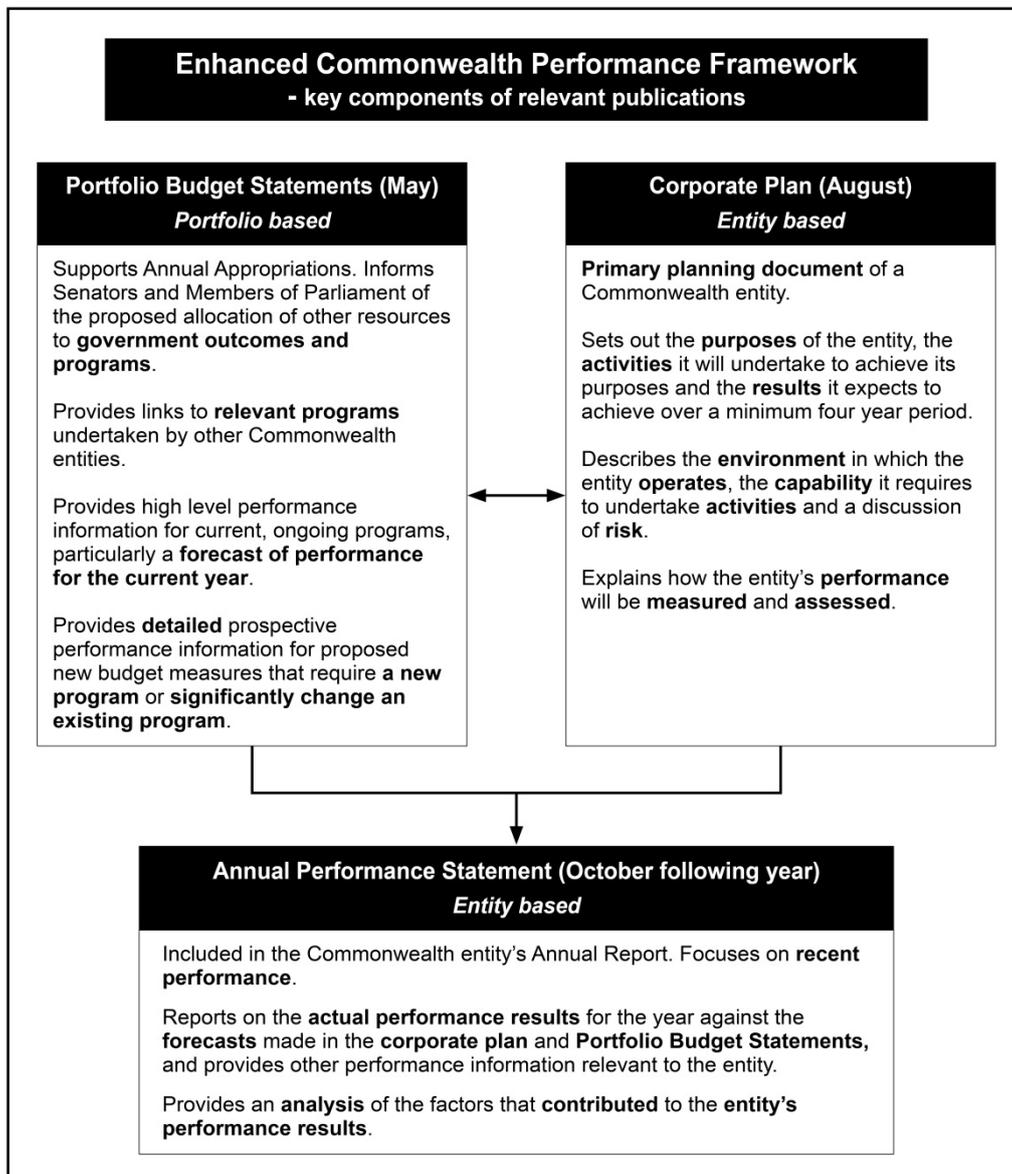

A key role of the PB Statements is to facilitate the understanding of proposed annual appropriations in Appropriation Bills (No. 1 and No. 2) 2019–20 (or Appropriation (Parliamentary Departments) Bill (No. 1) 2019–20 for the parliamentary departments). In this sense, the PB Statements are Budget related papers and are declared by the Appropriation Acts to be ‘relevant documents’ to the interpretation of the Acts according to section 15AB of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

The PB Statements provide information, explanation and justification to enable Parliament to understand the purpose of each outcome proposed in the Bills.

As required under section 12 of the Charter of Budget Honesty Act 1998, only entities within the general government sector are included as part of the Commonwealth general government sector fiscal estimates and produce PB Statements where they receive funding (either directly or via portfolio departments) through the annual appropriation acts.

THE ENHANCED COMMONWEALTH PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK

The following diagram outlines the key components of the enhanced Commonwealth performance framework. The diagram identifies the content of each of the publications and the relationship between them. PORTFOLIO OVERVIEW

COMMUNICATIONS AND THE ARTS PORTFOLIO OVERVIEW

MINISTERS AND PORTFOLIO RESPONSIBILITIES

There are two Ministers with responsibility for the Communications and the Arts Portfolio. Senator the Hon Mitch Fifield is the Minister for Communications and the Arts, and Senator the Hon Bridget McKenzie is the Minister for Regional Services, Sport, Local Government and Decentralisation.

The Communications and the Arts Portfolio comprises the Department of Communications and the Arts (the Department) and 17 other entities with key responsibilities as outlined below:

- Department of Communications and the Arts – The Department of Communications and the Arts aims to promote innovative communications and cultural sectors through policy, program and service delivery to the benefit of all Australians.
- Australia Council (the Council) – The Australia Council is the Australian Government’s arts funding and advisory body with a purpose to champion and invest in Australian arts. The Council has a national leadership role in supporting and building Australia’s arts ecology by fostering excellence in the arts, increasing national and international engagement with Australian art and artists, and promoting the appreciation, knowledge and understanding of the arts.
- Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) – The ABC is a national broadcaster. It provides programming that informs, educates and entertains, and contributes to and reflects Australia’s national identity, including delivering such programming to overseas audiences. It encourages cultural diversity, fosters public debate, engages directly with local communities, and fosters the creative industries, music and the arts. The ABC is an integral part of the Australian media, providing radio, television and digital media services to all Australians, including independent news and information services.
- Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) – The ACMA is responsible for regulating in accordance with legislation related to broadcasting, radiocommunications, telecommunications and online content. The ACMA works with all stakeholders to maximise the public benefit, including the extent to which the regulatory framework addresses the broad concerns of the community, meets the needs of industry, and maintains community and national interest safeguards.
- Australian Film, Television and Radio School (AFTRS) – The AFTRS is the leading institution for specialist education and training for Australia’s screen arts and broadcast sector. The AFTRS’ purpose is to provide high-quality education and training to advance the skills and knowledge of talented individuals and meet the evolving needs of Australia’s screen and broadcast industries. The AFTRS educates and inspires the storytellers of the future and encourages innovative engagement with technology to disseminate those stories to audiences. The AFTRS conducts leading research relevant to industry, holds forums and disseminates ideas to stimulate discussion and a response to the converging screen and broadcast industries.

- Australian National Maritime Museum (ANMM) – The ANMM is responsible for leading the promotion and conservation of Australia’s maritime heritage and culture. This is done through developing and sharing its collections, knowledge and expertise; motivating learning through research, educational programs and products; supporting community participation to retain Australia’s maritime heritage; and exploring contemporary issues of public interest and maritime relevance.
- Australian Postal Corporation (Australia Post) – Australia Post is a Government Business Enterprise, wholly owned by the Australian Government. It provides a mail and delivery service to all Australians and a range of parcel and logistics services.
- Bundanon Trust – Bundanon Trust cares for the Boyd art collection and supports arts practice and engagement with the arts through its residency, education, exhibition and performance programs. In preserving the natural and cultural heritage of its site, Bundanon Trust promotes the value of landscape in all our lives.
- Creative Partnerships Australia (legally constituted as the Australia Business Arts Foundation Ltd) – The role of Creative Partnerships Australia is to create a culture of private sector support for the arts. It aims to grow the culture of giving, investment, partnership and volunteering, bringing donors, businesses, artists and arts organisations together to foster a more sustainable and vibrant arts sector for the benefit of all Australians.
- National Film and Sound Archive of Australia (NFSA) – The NFSA is Australia’s premier audiovisual archive. It develops and preserves a collection of significant Australian film, recorded sound, broadcast works and new media, and shares the collection with audiences across Australia and overseas.
- National Gallery of Australia (NGA) – The purpose of the NGA is to develop and maintain a national collection of works of art; exhibit, or make available for exhibition by others, works of art from the national collection or works of art that are otherwise in the possession of the NGA; and to make the most advantageous use of the national collection in the national interest.
- National Library of Australia (NLA) – The NLA ensures that documentary resources of national significance relating to Australia and the Australian people, as well as significant non-Australian library materials, are collected, preserved and made accessible either through the library or through collaborative arrangements with other libraries.
- National Museum of Australia (NMA) – The NMA brings to life the rich and diverse stories of the nation through researching, developing, preserving, digitising and exhibiting a significant national collection, creating programs and partnerships for national and international audiences.

- National Portrait Gallery of Australia (NPGA) – The purpose of the NPGA is to present the face of Australia. The NPGA uses portraiture to tell their stories and to increase the understanding and appreciation of the Australian people – their identity, history, culture, creativity and diversity. The NPGA develops, preserves, maintains, promotes and provides access to a national collection of portraits.
- NBN Co Limited (NBN Co) – NBN Co is a Government Business Enterprise, wholly owned by the Australian Government. It is planning, rolling out and operating Australia’s new broadband network, which will provide all Australians with access to very fast broadband.
- Old Parliament House (OPH) – Old Parliament House was the home of the Federal Parliament from 1927 to 1988 and is an icon of national significance. It now houses the Museum of Australian Democracy, which provides dynamic exhibitions, education programs, galleries and experiences that explore Australia’s democratic traditions and encourage active and informed civil engagement.
- Screen Australia – Screen Australia works to support bold, enduring and culturally significant Australian storytelling that resonates with local audiences and succeeds in a global marketplace, created by a skilled and entrepreneurial screen industry. Screen Australia co-finances its projects with private financing sources.
- Special Broadcasting Service Corporation (SBS) – The SBS is a national broadcaster. It provides multicultural and multilingual services that inform, educate and entertain all Australians. Its mission is to contribute to a more cohesive, equitable and harmonious Australia through its television, radio and online services.

A summary of the Portfolio structure is at Figure 1. Further detail about the responsibilities of each agency appears in individual agency chapters.

Australia Post, Bundanon Trust, Creative Partnerships Australia and NBN Co do not appear in the 2019–20 Portfolio Budget Statements. Australia Post and NBN Co are not included as they are not part of the General Government Sector (GGS). While Bundanon Trust and Creative Partnerships Australia are part of the GGS, they are not included as they do not receive direct appropriation funding.

For information on resourcing across the portfolio, please refer to Part 1: Agency Financial Resourcing in Budget Paper No. 4: Agency Resourcing.
